Calling all Tufts students in Anthropology classes...

Would you like to deliver a brief anthropology paper in front of a curious and captive audience?

The Greater Boston Anthropology Consortium (GBAC) will hold its 2011 Student Anthropology Conference on Friday April 8 at Brandeis University.

To be considered, please e-mail an abstract of about 300 words by Thursday, December 16th to Prof. Rosalind Shaw (rosalind.shaw@tufts.edu)

(An abstract is a brief but clear overview of your argument and the substance of the material or sources on which it is based)
