Taking off from Alfred Gell’s Art and Agency, this talk will re-imagine the non-Western art object as not simply an expression of aesthetic thought but as a means of establishing social relations. A new approach to the concept of ‘agency’ will address questions concerning the nature of actions that might be attributed to objects in social life, including those with magical and even violent properties.

Carlo Severi is the Director of Studies with a chair in the “Anthropology of Memory” at the Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales, Paris. He is also the Director of Research at the Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique. He is the author of numerous books and articles including Ritual Memory, Naven, or The Other Self, A Relational Approach to Ritual Action, and The Principle of the Chimera, An Anthropology of Memory.