

Spring 2008 Ethnographic Film Series

"Picturing Culture: Immage and Innovation in Ehtnograph Film"

Presents: N!ai the Story of a !Kung
Woman

John Marshall, 1980

Tuesday April 8, 7:30

1st Floor Seminar Room
Department of Anthropology
126 Curtis Street
Tufts, Meford

This film chronicles the decline of the !Kung tribe through the narrative of one woman, N!ai, who is filmed in both her childhood in a food-foraging society, and 25 years later as a displaced person infected with TB. Through the biographical narrative, N!ai the Story of a !Kung Woman provides a personal account of the devistating consequences of western contact.

Sponsored by the Department of Anthropology
Questions Contact Jessica.Sofio@tufts.edu