

AT TUFTS UNIVERSITY

GHANA GOLD Study Tour

Return to Accra – Reflect on Ghana & Gold

Beatrix Allah-Mensah at ArtHaus, were GhanaGold participants will have a day of reflection and create a piece of art that expresses an idea.

Kofi Sertodji (right), director of ArtHaus, shows Allah-Mensah a practical solution to the problem of plastic bag pollution- a low cost, portable plastic bag receptacle designed by a visiting artist from Japan.

Football fever (soccer) grips the country as Ghana's national team prepares for the World Cup.

Joyce Aryee (center), CEO of the Ghana Chamber of Mines, with B. Allah-Mensah and Prof. Robinson at her home in Accra

Sunset on the University of Ghana campus in Legon, were the GhanaGold participants return for the final sessions.