

Africa-Diaspora Lecture Series, 2004–2005

Joseph E. Harris

Distinguished Professor of History
Howard University

Crane Room,
Paige Hall
September 29, 2004

The African Diaspora Globalized

The African Diaspora Map I—Scope of the Dispersion to 1873, based on research by Joseph E. Harris, published by Rand McNally.

Harris' lecture drew a large and enthusiastic audience of students, faculty, administrators and people from the greater Boston area.

Kevin Dunn, Dean of Academic Affairs for Arts and Sciences, introduced the African Diaspora Lecture Series to the Tufts community.

Professor Harris chats with three "globalized" Africans: (counter clockwise) Edward Kibirige, a health consultant from Uganda; Uzodinma Ezimora (FI 06), a German national; and Cedza Dlamini (LA 05) from Swaziland.