

AT TUFTS UNIVERSITY

Africa-Diaspora Lecture Series, 2005–2006

Bennetta Jules-Rosette

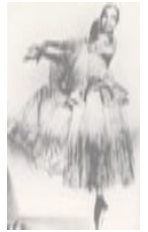

Professor of Sociology

Director, African & African-American Studies Research Project

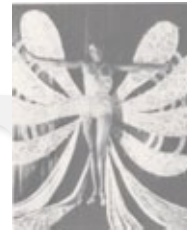

University of California-San Diego

October 17, 2005

Two Loves: Josephine Baker as Icon and Image

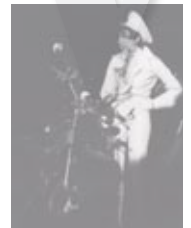

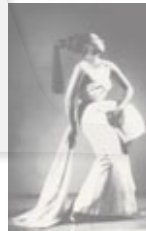

Robert Sternberg, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, launched the ANW Africa-Diaspora Lecture Series, 2005-06.

Lawrence Senelick and Barbara Grossman of the Department of Drama and Dancefront-and-center.

David Locke (Music) leads Tufts' African drumming and dance ensemble.

Prof Adelaide Cromwell of Boston University congratulates Prof. Jules-Rosette.

Abdul Farah (ANW staff), Peter Probst (Art History), Modhumita Roy (English & Women's Studies), and Pearl Robinson (ANW Director & Political Science) with Jules-Rosette after the lecture.

Lynne Frederiksen (Dance) left with new perspectives on performance