

AFTER INNOCENCE:

The 2005 Sundance Award-winning story of seven men and their emotional journey back into society after being sent to prison for decades for crimes they did not commit.

Additional screenings of
After Innocence

Directed by Jessica Sanders

Produced by Jessica Sanders and Marc H. Simon

April 4, 2006

6:00 pm

Tisch 304

April 5, 2006

12:00 pm

Africana Center

www.afterinnocence.com

Screening and Panel Discussion with Producer Marc Simon and exonerees.

Thursday, April 6, 2006

5:30 pm

Pearson 106

The Black Cultural Studies
Seminar
at Tufts University

2005-2006 Lecture Series:
Prisons

Funding for the BCSST 2005–06 lecture series, “Prisons,” comes from the generous support of The Arts, Science and Engineering Diversity Fund, Women’s Studies, Peace & Justice Studies, American Studies, UCCPS, & the Africana Center. BCSST lectures are free and open to the Tufts community and the public. For more information please call (617) 627-3372.