The Department of Art and Art History

presents

"The Medieval Salento: Art and Identity in Southern Italy."

A Tomasso Lecture

by

Linda Safran, Research Fellow, Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies, University of Toronto

Linda Safran (PhD, Yale) is editor of Gesta and Research Fellow at the Pontifical Institute of Mediæval Studies in Toronto. She previously taught art history at the University of Toronto and the Catholic University of America, where she was Chair of the Department of Greek and Latin. She has published a monograph and numerous articles on southern Italy, and her book on the visual culture of the medieval Salento, which received a Millard Meiss publication award from the College Art association, is forthcoming from the University of Pennsylvania Press. In addition, she has edited or co-edited Heaven on Earth: Art and the Church in Byzantium, The Early Christian Book, and Confronting the Borders of Mediæval Art.

Tuesday, October 29, 2013
6:00 - 7:00pm
Granoff Music Center, room 155
20 Talbot Ave.