Stigma Unstuck:
A Mental Health Art Series at Tufts
Presents

Join Tufts University & PBS’s NOVA for a screening of “Addiction” followed by a panel conversation and audience Q&A about the stigma surrounding addiction, and how we can change the conversation about addiction to reduce language and attitudes that perpetuate stigma and prevent people from seeking treatment.

Panelists Include:
Ian Wong, Tufts University, Dept. of Health Promotion & Prevention
Matt Mitchell, Somerville Cares About Prevention, City of Somerville
Dr. Randi Sokol, Tufts Family Medicine Residency Program, Cambridge Health Alliance
