To: Arts & Sciences Faculty
From: LA&J Committee on Curricula
Date: May 2, 2011
Re: Annual Report

The Committee shepherded 85 items through review and approval by A&S Faculty. Items approved (some are pending faculty vote on the May 11 agenda) include 1 new minor, 48 new courses, 18 changes of title, description or number of extant courses, 11 majors with changed requirements, and 6 courses deleted. CurrComm also approved (pending LA&J faculty vote) a change in the title of a Culture Option area.

New courses include 2 in Anthropology, 1 in Art History, 1 in Astronomy, 1 in Biology, 1 in Classics, 1 in Community Health, 5 in Dance, 3 in Education, 6 in English, 1 in French, 1 in Geology, 3 in History, 1 in International Letters and Visual Studies, 2 in Italian, 3 in Judaic Studies, 4 in Music, 3 in Religion, 2 in Physical Education, 2 in Sociology.

New Minor: Education (undergraduate minor)

Majors with changed requirements:
- ACS-certified Chemistry
- Biochemistry
- Chemical Physics
- Chemistry
- Cognitive and Brain Sciences
- Computer Science
- Drama and Dance
- International Literary and Visual Studies [title change]
- Music
- Peace & Justice Studies
- Sociology

Culture Option area title change from “African and African-American Culture” to “African Culture and Diasporas”

Respectfully submitted,
Francie Chew (Chair ’10–’11, Biology)
Anselm Blumer (Computer Science)
Gary Goldstein (Physics and Astronomy)
David Harder (Psychology)
Julia Korovikov, (TCU Senate, LA’13)
Monica McTighe (Art History)
Daniel Mulholland (History)
Saskia Stoessel (German, Russian, and Asian Languages and Literatures)
Montserrat Teixidor i Bigas (Mathematics)

Ex officio:
Carol Downing (Registrar’s office)
Karen Garrett Gould (Undergraduate Education)
JoAnn Jack (Registrar’s office)
Carmen Lowe (Undergraduate Education)
Laura Walters (Tisch Library)