Criteria for Summa cum Laude
for College of Liberal Arts

*the following reflects the language in the Bulletin of Tufts University

- Final cumulative GPA at or above 3.80
- At least 6 grades of A or A- in the major*
- Vote of approval from the major department or program
- Candidate must have not committed serious violations of the Student Code of Conduct
- Faculty vote: “summa cum laude is awarded only by special vote of the entire faculty, recognizing extraordinary achievement in the breadth, and well as depth, of the student’s intellectual development.”

* All grades of A or A- must be received in courses offered by a department or interdisciplinary program at Tufts or in Tufts Programs Abroad. Please note that Advanced Placement scores are not interpreted as grades. Grades in courses taken at institutions other than Tufts shall not be considered as criteria for honors. Exceptions to this rule are courses taken through cross-registration, domestic exchange programs with partner institutions, or Tufts Programs Abroad.
