

Henry and Madeline Fischer Award

- Awarded annually to a faculty member of the School of Engineering judged by graduating seniors of the School of Engineering to be "Engineering's Teacher of the Year."
- Recipient will have demonstrated teaching excellence, inspired and motivated students to rise to their best, and left them a lasting and gratifying memory of a special teacher and a profound intellectual experience.

Past Award Winners

2017	Ronald Lasser, Electrical and Computer Engineering
2016	Ming Chow, Computer Science
2015	Matthew Panzer, Chemical and Biological Engineering Jack Derby, Gordon Institute
2014	Chris Rogers, Mechanical Engineering
2013	David M. Gute, Civil and Environmental Engineering
2012	Ben Hescott, Computer Science
2011	Eric Hines, Civil and Environmental Engineering
2010	Jerry Meldon, Chemical & Biological Engineering
2009	Ronald Lasser, Electrical & Computer Engineering
2008	Brian Brenner, Civil & Environmental Engineering
2007	Gary Leisk, Mechanical Engineering
2006	David Kaplan, Biomedical Engineering
2005	Denis Fermental, Electrical & Computer Engineering Vincent Manno, Mechanical Engineering
2004	Lewis Edgers, Civil & Environmental Engineering
2003	Karen Panetta, Electrical & Computer Engineering
2002	Alva Couch, Computer Science