

ROUTE (Recognition of Undergraduate Teaching Excellence) Award

- Awarded annually to a junior faculty member who has displayed exceptional teaching and advising, concern for students' academic and personal growth, and the ability to convey passion and enthusiasm for his or her field of study.
- Presented annually to a member of the Faculty of Arts, Sciences and Engineering.
- Selection committee consists of the Dean of Undergraduate Education and the two previous recipients.

Past Award Winners

2014	Matthew Panzer, Chemical and Biological Engineering
From 1996-2013, this award was titled the UNITE (Undergraduate Initiative in Teaching) Award
2013	Joshua Kritzer, Chemistry
2012	Scott MacLachlan, Mathematics
2011	Mitch McVey, Biology
2010	Sarah Sobieraj, Sociology
2009	Hugh Gallagher, Physics & Astronomy
2008	Heather Urry, Psychology
2007	Jay Shimshack, Economics
2006	Kelly McLaughlin, Biology
2005	Laurie Baise, Civil & Environmental Engineering
2004	Margaret McMillan, Economics Consuelo Cruz, Political Science
2003	Kim Ruane, Mathematics Kerry Chase, Political Science
2002	Nancy Bauer, Philosophy Bruce Boghosian, Mathematics Tommy Hahn, Music
2001	Hosea Hirata, German, Russian & Asian Languages & Literatures Misha Kilmer, Mathematics
2000	Bernhard Martin, German, Russian & Asian Languages & Literatures Elizabeth Remick, Political Science
1999	Chris Swan, Civil & Environmental Engineering
1998	Greg Carlton, German, Russian & Asian Languages & Literatures Erin Kelly, Philosophy
1997	Holly Taylor, Psychology Arthur Utz, Chemistry
1996	Rob Devigne, Political Science Charles Inouye, German, Russian & Asian Languages & Literatures