The New Economy: Does it exist, and what does it mean?

Neva Goodwin, GDAE Co-Director

GDAE’s textbooks have described three spheres of economic activity: Business, Public Purpose (i.e. government and non-profits), and Core (i.e. family and community). Yet some activities don’t fit within these categories, and have been called the “new economy.” Are these, in fact, new ways of organizing economic activity?

Thursday, February 19
2:30-3:45 pm
44 Teele Ave. Somerville, MA
www.gdae.org