SAVE THE DATE

TUESDAY OCTOBER 14TH

Winning Hearts and Minds: Anti-Racism, Feminism, and the New Economy with Chris Crass
6:30-8:30 Crane Room, Paige Hall, Tufts University

Chris Crass, longtime organizer, educator, and writer, will lead a workshop to explore how we can create a more just and sustainable economy through multiracial, cross-class, feminist movement building. This event is part of New Economy Week, an opportunity to explore what it would take to build the economy we need, one that works for people, place, and planet.

Refreshments will be served

Sponsored by:
Tufts New Economy
Global Development And Environment Institute
New Economy Coalition

Jonathan M. Tisch College of Citizenship and Public Service