

Fulfillment of Judaic Studies Minor Requirements

The minor consists of six courses selected from courses approved for the major, including at least four primary courses (see current Bulletin listing). Four of the six courses must be taken at Tufts and must include either Directed Study JS191 or JS192), which results in a substantial integrative project, or another course in which such a project is produced. Two years of Hebrew or the equivalent are strongly recommended. For further information consult Professor Gloria Ascher or Professor Joel Rosenberg, Program Directors.
