² In place of Russian 121 and 122, the student may substitute Russian 118, 119, 131 and 132, or any advanced course related to Russia and Eastern Europe in which all readings are in Russian.

³ History 100 (Historical Marxism) may be taken for the REES major, with prior approval of the instructor.
