

Draft Agenda: 12.2.07

Achieving Recognition for Community Engagement: A Workshop for New England
Higher Education Institutions on Applying for the Carnegie Foundation
Classification on Community Engagement

Massachusetts Campus Compact/NERCHE as Co-Sponsor

Date: February 25, 2008

Location: The College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, MA
The Hogan Center

Schedule	Session	Speakers
10 -10-15 AM	Welcome and Introductions	Barbara Canyes, MACC President of HC (or John Bassett from Clark)
10:15-12 AM	Plenary Session Focus on the Frameworks	Amy Driscoll, The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching
12 AM -1 PM	Lunch
1- 3 PM	Break-out sessions* The sessions will be presentations by campuses in NE that received the classification in2006. The focus will be on the process of applying for the classification: How the framework was addressed, how the data was gathered, how the report was written, what impact the process had on the campus	1. University Model (invite one campus team to present) • Tufts • UMB • UVM
		2. Liberal Arts Model (invite one campus team to present) • Middlebury • Bates • Trinity
		3. Community College Model (invite one campus team to present) • Bristol Community College • Middlesex Community College

3-4 PM	Closing Plenary (Primarily observations and Q & A.)	Amy Driscoll, The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching
--------	--	---

* New England Campuses that received the classification in 2006

- MA: Bristol CC
Middlesex CC
Tufts University
UMass Boston
- NH: Antioch NE
Keene State College
- VT: UVM
Middlebury College
- CT: Trinity College
- ME: Bates College

Conference Goals:

To provide an opportunity for campuses across NE to gain greater understanding of the Carnegie Foundation classification on Community Engagement and gain knowledge about how to effectively organize and complete the application process.

Conference Outcomes:

To gain a greater understanding of the Carnegie Foundation Frameworks for institutionalizing community engagement.
To learn from peer institutions about the campus process involved in a successful application.

Next Steps:

- Confirm with Amy Driscoll and confirm fees (honorarium and travel)
- Send out save the date announcement.
- Organize break-out sessions: Invite presenters.
- Work with Holy Cross around lunch and refreshments and costs.
- Set up registration process and determine cost: 100 person limit.
- Determine whether to encourage teams to attend.