

SERVICE-LEARNING CONFERENCE

BRIDGEWATER STATE COLLEGE

APRIL 18, 2008

8:30AM-4:00PM

RONDILEAU CAMPUS CENTER BALLROOM

Guest Speaker: Liz Walker (an award-winning journalist and documentary producer, also host/executive producer of the WBZ show “Sunday With Liz Walker.” But more than just a television celebrity Ms. Walker serves on many committees and boards of large charities such as: UNICEF, Big Sister Association, Pediatric AIDS Charitable Trust of Boston, and much more. She is also co-founder of “My Sister’s Keeper.”)

Service-Learning is a teaching methodology that utilizes community service as a means of helping students gain a deeper understanding of course objectives, acquire new knowledge and engage in civic activity.

This workshop will inform on a variety of Service-Learning topics such as:

- Getting Started with Service-Learning
- Incorporating Service-Learning in Your FYS + SYS Courses
 - Incorporating Service-Learning in Your P & T Dossier
 - How to Improve on Your current Service-Learning Courses
 - Students-in-Action Panel sharing experiences, courses, ideas
- Complementary breakfast, lunch, a wine/soda and cheese reception
 - And Much More!!!

Available space is limited so please contact by either phone or email by April 14

Registration fee is waived for Bridgewater faculty and administration and MACC institution members

Contact Information: nmoses@bridgew.edu or (508 531-2046)

For additional information visit: www.bridgew.edu/ServiceLearning/