

Massachusetts | Campus Compact

Tufts University, 196 Boston Ave., Suite 2400, Medford, MA 02155
Tel: 617-627-3889 ~ Fax: 617-627-3837

Campus Based MACC AmeriCorps*VISTA list of activities for September 11th Day of Service

UMass Dartmouth

The University of Massachusetts – Dartmouth and local Community Based Organizations will be hosting service projects throughout the greater New Bedford area on September 11th. The list of events is below.

Share the Harvest, YMCA Dartmouth

Volunteers will help with the harvest at the Community Farm in Dartmouth. Transportation provided.

Veterans Transition House, New Bedford

Volunteers will join the staff at the Veterans Transition House to paint the facility. Transportation provided.

Allen's Pond Wildlife Sanctuary Butterfly Garden

Volunteers will help tidy up the Allen's Pond Wildlife Sanctuary Butterfly Garden for the fall in preparation for the southward butterfly migration. They will weed the garden and the walkway as well as begin cutting back plants for the fall. All ages and skill levels are welcome. Transportation provided.

Community Economic Development Center of Southeastern MA

The CEDC will be looking for volunteers to help clean and move around class rooms in preparation for their after-school programs. Volunteers must be able to lift computers and monitors. Volunteers will also be setting up shelves in order to create more space.

University of Massachusetts – Boston, MA

Students and staff of UMass Boston will be serving at the American Red Cross Food Pantry for the day on September 11th.

North Shore Community College, Lynn MA

North Shore Community College will be kicking off their food drive on campus on September 11th.

Community Based MACC AmeriCorps*VISTA list of activities for September 11th Day of Service

Gray House- Springfield MA

On September 11th, the Gray House is hosting local business volunteers for the United Way "Day of Caring." These volunteers will be helping to complete a painting job inside of our 125 year old Victorian house where all of our programs are run out of. Their help sprucing up our house will be much appreciated.

Community Economic Development Center of Southeastern MA- New Bedford MA

The CEDC will be looking for 3 volunteers to help us out on September 11th from 10am-3pm. We need volunteers to help clean and move around our class rooms in preparation for our after-school programs. Volunteers must be able to lift computers and monitors. We will also be setting up shelves in order to create more space. Please contact us via email at BrookeCEDC@gmail.com or call 508-979-4684.

MainSpring House Shelter- Brockton MA

We are participating in the United Way Day of Caring Event as a host site. The United Way will be sending volunteers to our site between 9:30am and 1:30pm. The volunteers are from local organizations and will be painting the lobby at the MainSpring House Shelter. The project is not open to other individuals, as all participants have been organized by the United Way.

Mass Audubon Allens Pond Wildlife Sanctuary- Westport MA

Help us tidy up the Allens Pond Wildlife Sanctuary Butterfly Garden for the fall in preparation for the southward butterfly migration. We will weed the garden and the walkway as well as begin cutting back plants for the fall. All ages and skill levels are welcome. Volunteers may have the opportunity to participate in Monarch Butterfly tagging. Meet at the Allens Pond field station, 1280 Horseneck Rd. Westport, MA.

Sharing the Harvest – Dartmouth YMCA- Dartmouth MA

Sharing the Harvest is looking for groups to volunteer on our two-acre community farm. Groups are encouraged to spend a few hours seeding, transplanting, cultivating and harvesting on the farm while having the opportunity to socialize. This opportunity is a fun way to spend the day outdoors helping Southcoast food pantries by providing healthy, fresh vegetables.

Southcoast Serves- New Bedford MA

SouthCoast Serves, a partnership of 26 (and growing) organizations that foster service and volunteerism to meet the needs of our community by leveraging resources, expertise and capacity to maximize impact, is encouraging SouthCoast residents to volunteer on National Day of Service and Remembrance –

September 11, 2009. To sign up visit United Way of Greater New Bedford's Volunteer Solutions website at <http://volunteer.united-e-way.org/uwgnb/volunteer/> and search for the special community projects under the "National Day of Service and Remembrance Event" link.