Colonialism Studies at Tufts University & Friends of Mada Al-Carmel present

A book talk by NOURA ERAKAT: JUSTICE FOR SOME

Tuesday, Sept. 24, 6:30 PM
The Crane Room, Paige Hall
12 Upper Campus Rd. Tufts University

Justice in the Question of Palestine is often framed as a question of law. Over the past century, the law has done more to advance Israel's interests than the Palestinians'. But, Erakat argues, this outcome was never inevitable.

Noura Erakat is a human rights attorney and assistant professor at Rutgers University, New Brunswick. She has served as a legal advocate for Palestinian refugee rights at the United Nations. She is a frequent commentator, with recent appearances on CBS News, CNN, Fox News, and NPR.

Co-sponsored by: The Fares Center for Eastern Mediterranean Studies, Middle Eastern Studies, International Relations, & the Department of Studies in Race, Colonialism & Diaspora. For info contact amahl.bishara@tufts.edu.
