TO BE COMPLETED BY THE INTERNSHIP SUPERVISOR OR EMPLOYER

The Tufts University Department of Political Science offers the opportunity for fieldwork or internship experience through Political Science 99. This course enables students to combine the academic study of politics (American government, international relations and comparative politics, political theory) with practical work experience in the public or private sector in Massachusetts. The student listed above has completed a semester-long internship in your office or organization and hopes to receive academic credit from the Political Science Department. Fifty percent of the course grade will come from your evaluation of the student's work. For more information on PS99 please go to our website: <http://ase.tufts.edu/polsci/civic/InternOverview.htm>

Written Evaluation of Student's Performance

Please provide a brief written evaluation of the student's overall performance as an intern in your office or organization. For example, you may wish to discuss a particular project or assignment that he or she may have undertaken.

Job Performance Grade

Please assign a letter grade for the student's performance as an intern in your office or organization. Again, the grade you assign will count 50% percent toward the student's overall course grade for Political Science 99. The grading scale for Tufts University courses is as follows:

A=Superior performance; B=Meritorious performance; C=Performance without merit or defect;

D=Unsatisfactory work, but allowable for credit; F=Failure; No credit is received

You may modify the grades A, B, C and D with a plus (+) or minus (-). Students cannot take Political PS99 as a "pass/fail" course nor "incomplete."
