

The 2010 Honos Civicus Society application is now available for graduating seniors. The Honos Civicus Society is a growing network of Tufts alumni who excelled in active citizenship courses and co-curricular activities during their undergraduate years at Tufts. With an inaugural group of over 90 seniors inducted into Honos Civicus last spring, the Society will select new members from the School of Arts and Sciences and the School of Engineering.

Applications are due Monday, February 22nd at noon. The application is available to download at activecitizen.tufts.edu/HonosCivicus.
