

SUMMER STUDY IN CUBA

Unique Opportunity for Tufts Students

2012 Norfolk State University Summer Program in Cuba

(open to qualifying Tufts undergraduate and graduate students)

June 11 to July 23, 2012

Endorsed by Tufts International Relations Program, Department of Romance Languages, Latin American Studies Program, and the Institute for Global Leadership

- Program costs: $5,450 (includes: tuition for 2 courses, lodging, 2 daily meals, academic visa, health insurance, internal transportation, all programmed activities and local trips, air-fare Miami-Havana-Miami)
- Tufts participants will register at Norfolk State University as “non-degree” students for 2012 Summer Session in Cuba.
- Program costs will be paid directly to Norfolk State University.
- Course credits will be transferred through Norfolk State University.

INFORMATIONAL SESSION:
Wednesday, January 25, 2012
7:00 pm
Laminan Lounge, Olin Center

Contacts:

- At Tufts: Claudia Kaiser-Lenoir - claudia.kaiser-lenoir@tufts.edu
- At Norfolk State University: William Alexander - whalexander@nsu.edu

Program will be held at Casa de las Américas, Academic Unit of the Schools of Letters and Art History, University of Havana