

Constitution for the Tufts University Concert Board

Last Revised: 9/02

Article I: Title

Section I: The name of the organization shall be the Tufts University Concert Board

Article II: Purpose

Section I: The purpose of the Concert Board is to bring a variety of concerts to the Tufts Community.

Article III: Membership

Section I: Membership shall be open to any undergraduate member of the Tufts Community who has paid the Student Activities Fee and wants to get involved in programming.

Section II: Members will be bound by an agreement to keep all happenings in meetings, specifically information on potential performers or contracts strictly confidential.

Section III: The participation in and production of the concerts are a privilege for Concert Board members. This privilege may be revoked at any time if the Co-Chairs see fit.

Article IV: Meetings

Section I: Meetings shall be held weekly throughout the academic year.

Article V: Voting

Section I: A voting member is defined as an individual who has attended at least two meetings of Concert Board.

Section II: For all voting except when otherwise stated, a majority will rule.

Section III: In the event of a tie, the Co-chairs will decide the outcome.

Article VI: Amendments

Section I: Amendments may be proposed by any voting member of Concert Board.

Section II: At least two thirds of Concert Board must be present to consider an amendment. If the two-thirds are there, voting may occur. For an amendment to pass, two-thirds of the entire Concert Board must vote for it. This process must comply with all Tufts Community Union Judiciary rules and regulations.

Article VII: Selection of Officers

Section I: There shall be two Co-Chairs of Concert Board.

Section II: A vote will be held before spring semester ends for the open positions of the Co-Chairs. To be eligible to vote for co-chairs, you must have attended at least two-thirds of all meetings. This overrides Article V, Section I.

Section III: The new Co-Chair(s) must be voting members of the Concert Board. If no voting members apply, the position will be opened to members of the Tufts Community.

Section IV: An executive board of officers will be chosen by the Co-chairs through an application process for the purpose of aiding the operation of the Concert Board. These positions may include Production Assistant, Head of Security, Hospitality, Box Office Sales, and New Music Coordinator.

Section V: Executive officers may be impeached by the process outlined in Article IX.

Article VIII: Duties of the Co-Chairs

Section I: The Co-Chairs are responsible for running weekly meetings, overseeing general activities, managing the budget and creating a new budget for the next year, and maintaining contact with any agents the group works through and with the Student Activities Office Programs Coordinator, who serves as advisor to this organization.

Section II: The Co-Chairs are also responsible for attending weekly Programming Board meetings.

Section III: The Co-Chairs have the authority to act on behalf of the Concert Board when matters require immediate action.

Section IV: Co-Chairs must also attend all retreats deemed mandatory by the Programming Board and are bound by its constitution as well.

Article IX: Impeachment of Officers

Section I: A Co-Chair may be impeached when

- a) He or she misses three meetings within a semester
- b) He or she fails in fulfilling any duties listed in article VIII.
- c) He or she fails to fulfill duties associated with the Programming Board
- d) He or she acts in a manner detrimental to the interests of Concert Board

Section II: Charges for impeachment may be brought by any voting member of the Concert Board.

Section III: A proposal to impeach must be accompanied by a written explanation. The accused is then given a week to prepare a defense and the next meeting both sides are given ample time to present their case. A vote will then occur in which two-thirds of all voting members are required for impeachment. This process must comply with all Tufts Community Union Judiciary rules and regulations.

Section IV: If a Co-Chair is impeached from the Programming Board, the Concert Board must have a hearing for the Co-Chair and consider impeachment from the Concert Board. A vote must then take place in which the two-thirds majority is still required.

Amendment I: Co-Chair Terms of Office

This amendment overrides portions of Article VII, Section II. Elections for Co-Chair(s) will take place before the end of the Fall Semester. Term of office for Co-Chairs is the calendar year. This amendment will be in effect upon approval by the TCUJ.
