

WOMEN'S STUDIES

BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

*The 19th annual forum
where students present their work on women & gender*

April 2, 2004

1:00 - 3:00PM

Crane Room (Paige Hall)

PROGRAM

- ◆ WELCOME Kevin Dunn, Dean, Arts & Sciences
- ◆ STUDENT PANEL Faculty Moderator: Peggy Hutaff, Comparative Religion
 - Bess Dopkeen Moroccans, Marriages & Moudawana
 - Rachel Tulchin *Kila mlango na ufunguwo wake: Every Door with its own Key.
Kenyan Women's Access to the Economy*
 - Catherine O'Reilly *Redemption of the Wicked Victim: Old Testament Rape Victims &
New Testament Heroines in the Bible Moralisee*
 - Molly L. Ritvo Re-Imaging Eve: My Story
 - Katherine Farris *Prescribed Lives:
Models & Anti-Models in Three Medieval Books for Women*
 - Shanique Streete The Sports Culture & Its Role in Violence Against Women
 - Nakeiha Primus Reflections: A Collection
 - "The Shadows of Silences"
 - "Womanhood"

All are welcome! Refreshments will be provided.

The Women's Studies Program would like to thank all of the students who submitted their work as well as the faculty members who generously contributed their time & intelligence to this event, including: Marilyn Glater - Political Science, Peggy Hutaff - Comparative Religion, Barbara Rodriguez - English, Lisa Shin - Psychology and Paulette Smith - Romance Languages.

For more information: 617-627-2955 or WomensStudies@tufts.edu or ase.tufts.edu/womenstudies