The Department of Occupational Therapy at Tufts University invites applications for one or two part-time Lecturers to begin in September 2016. Lecturers will teach our Older Adult practice course (OTS 229) taught in the fall and spring semesters, and/or one of our clinical reasoning courses that focuses on interviewing and interactive reasoning in occupational therapy practice (OTS 206) taught in the fall. Candidates must be Massachusetts licensed occupational therapists with prior teaching of graduate occupational therapy students, and expertise in the content and skills taught in each course. A doctoral degree is preferred (e.g., OTD, PhD, EdD, ScD).

Please submit a CV, letter of interest indicating which course(s) you are applying to teach, 2 confidential letters of reference, and sample course material. All application materials must be submitted via https://apply.interfolio.com/34739. Questions may be directed to Michelle Molle, Department of Occupational Therapy, Tufts University, Medford, MA 02155 at michelle.molle@tufts.edu. Review of applications begins immediately and continues until position is filled.
