

HEBREW MINOR

The minor in Hebrew is a language-intensive combination of Hebrew and Hebrew-based Judaic Studies courses that includes an introduction to modern Hebrew literature.

Requirements:

The minor consists of Hebrew 21, 22, 121, and 122 (third- and fourth- year Hebrew language with an introduction to modern Hebrew literature), or equivalent, and two additional courses in Hebrew-based Judaic Studies from the following list:

English 49 The English Bible

Judaic Studies 48 Israeli Film

Judaic Studies 73 Aspects of the Sephardic Tradition

Judaic Studies 84 The Sources of Jewish Tradition

Judaic Studies 126 Roots of the Jewish Imagination

Judaic Studies 132 The Book of Genesis and Its Interpreters

Judaic Studies 136 King David and the Israelite Monarchy

Music 54 Music and Prayer in the Jewish Tradition (=JS 150/Rel 158)

Religion 21 Introduction to the Hebrew Bible

Minor Requirements

Name: _____ Major: _____

Identification number: _____

Class: _____ Email: _____

Third- and fourth-year Hebrew language, with introduction to modern Hebrew literature:

HEB 21, or equiv. _____ Course Grade _____ HEB 22, or equiv. _____ Course Grade _____

HEB 121, or equiv. _____ Course Grade _____ HEB 122, or equiv. _____ Course Grade _____

Two additional courses in Hebrew-based Judaic Studies (see above list):

1. Course Number _____ Course Grade _____

2. Course Number _____ Course Grade _____

Advisor's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Student's Signature: _____ Date: _____

All courses must have grades of C or above. Students should declare their intentions to minor no later than the spring semester of their junior year. Any member of the core faculty of the Program in Judaic Studies can serve as an advisor for the Hebrew minor. For further information, contact the Judaic Studies Program Directors, Professor Gloria Ascher or Professor Joel Rosenberg, or the Hebrew Language Coordinator, Lecturer Hedda Harari-Spencer.