JAPANESE LANGUAGE & CULTURAL STUDIES MAJOR INSTRUCTIONS AND POLICIES

- Ten courses required.
- No major course may be taken Pass/Fail.
- Students must achieve a grade of C- or better for a course to count for credit toward the major.
- If you have more than one major, please see Bulletin for rules on double-counting courses.
- If you have a minor, no more than two courses (at least six SHUs) used toward the minor may be used toward foundation, distribution, major, or other minor requirements.
- Credit restrictions from study abroad Tufts-in-Japan;

- Two language courses maximum per semester may appear on the Tufts transcript, even though students may take more than two language courses per term.
  - Four culture courses maximum per semester may appear on the Tufts transcript. Students may take more than four culture courses but need to notify Japanese Language Coordinator at Tufts of which four courses are to be counted for credit. This must be done within five weeks of the first day of classes at Kanazawa. Martial arts courses will count 0.5 credit each.
  - Up to two courses from the Kanazawa Program can be used to fulfill the Japanese major requirements category “III” above. They, however, will be considered “lower-level” courses, thus will not fulfill the requirement “two of these courses must be at the 100 level” within the category III” above. One additional course may be used as fulfilling the category “IV” above.
- Non-Tufts study abroad program
    - Students may request to transfer credits from non-Tufts programs through SIS. Transferring credits of language courses will be considered after meeting with Language Coordinator upon returning to Tufts.
    - Only one culture (including literature) course could be counted toward fulfilling the Japanese major requirements, and only the category “IV” above.
