RELIGION MINOR INSTRUCTIONS AND POLICIES

- Five courses required
- Students must take REL 99 (Theory and Method in Study of Religion). We recommend that students take at least two other courses in religion prior to enrolling in this course.
- Students should have exposure to at least three different religious traditions. This may be accomplished through classes in which three different traditions are taught, or through three courses, each focused on a different religious tradition, or through some combination thereof. The advisor and the chair of the Department of Religion must approve the courses taken to fulfill this requirement.
- Students must take one other course numbered above 100. This course may not be counted as one of the three courses of the above requirement.
- If you have more than one major, please see Bulletin for rules on double-counting courses.
- If you have a minor, no more than two course credits used toward the minor may be used toward foundation, distribution, major, or other minor requirements.
- Please see Departmental Website for complete Religion major and minor requirements/policies.
